The Board of Directors of the Friends of the Culpeper County Library is thrilled to announce its fourth annual storytelling event “Culpeper Tells...a Festival of Words” on March 11, 2017. The story of Culpeper Tells is growing as the festival becomes a destination tourism event attracting both locals and tourists to shop, dine, and stay in Culpeper.

What is storytelling? Simply put it’s timeless entertainment. Storytelling is an interactive way of using words and actions to tell a story and engage a listener’s imagination. It’s not stand-up comedy, although it’s often humorous. Culpeper Tells has included bluegrass and folk singing, but it’s not a concert. It’s not children’s story time, but most ages will enjoy most stories. A storytelling festival features performances and workshops from a variety of professional storytellers while also offering story slams—a chance for amateurs to tell a tale.

In 2017, we will welcome back master storyteller Donald Davis! Our featured storytellers also include Adam Booth, Geraldine Buckley, and Michael Reno Harrell. These talented storytellers have entertained audiences across the country, and we are excited to bring them to Culpeper Tells.

We need your help to make Culpeper Tells a success! This event wouldn’t happen without your support and commitment to our community. So, please join the Friends of the Library by supporting this annual event with a sponsorship or tax-deductible donation. Levels of sponsorship and ticket benefits are listed on the left.

It is the Board’s vision and hope that Culpeper Tells...a Festival of Words will become a key element of the Friends of the Culpeper County Library fundraising efforts, providing a funding source for a diverse mixture of library programs. Please join us as a sponsor by completing the form below and returning it to the Culpeper County Library at 271 Southgate Shopping Center, Culpeper, VA 22701, or through PayPal at www.cclva.org.

Don’t forget to mark your calendars for March 11, 2017, and plan to join friends and family for a magical day of entertainment!

Thank you for your continued support of the Culpeper community,
Elana Clements & Kelly Rozwadowski
2017 Committee Co-Chairs, Culpeper Tells...A Festival of Words
